Holley West honored as Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce Spirit of the Chamber Awards recipient

NASHVILLE, TENN. – Oct. 1, 2014 – The Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce named Holley West, executive vice president, communications & operations at Applied Health Analytics as a recipient of the organization’s annual Spirit of the Chamber Awards. West was honored at the Chamber and Partnership 2020 Annual Meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 1.

“We are experiencing a time of growth in Nashville and I want that growth to be right-sized and strong,” said West. “Education and transportation issues, passions of mine, are what make a city strong and livable at its foundation. We are very fortunate that the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce continues to lead the charge to connect the business community to the issues that make us better. I am honored and humbled by this recognition.”

Committed to community activism, West is a member of Leadership Health Care, the Society for Healthcare Strategy and Market Development and serves as Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) chairperson for the Public Relations Society of America – Nashville Chapter. West was a finalist for the 2012 Nashville Emerging Leaders and Nashville Business Journal 40 Under 40 Awards. West serves on the Young Leaders Council Board of Directors, served on the American Lung Association Regional Leadership Board and the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce Education Report Card and AMP committees.

The Spirit of the Chamber Awards were introduced in 2008 as a way to honor outstanding volunteers for their service to the Chamber and the community. Each year, the Chamber gives awards to individual members who have embodied the organization’s Belong, Engage, Lead, Prosper brand promise during the previous program year. In addition, Prosperity Partner and Spirit of the Region awards are given to the individual or group whose work has contributed to the overall prosperity and economic success of Middle Tennessee.
